

TEMPERANCE TRIUMPHANT AND Grog STOPPED.

Glorification Meeting at the Tabernacle.

Speeches of Messrs. Cuyler, Culver, Wakeley, &c.

THE BOUQUET MAN ON THE PLATFORM.

See, see, see.

There was a grand temperance demonstration last evening in the Broadway Tabernacle. The friends of a Prohibition liquor bill met to congratulate each other on the late passage of such a bill by the Legislature of this State. The meeting was called by the New York Temperance Alliance, and was a triumph for the cause. The speakers were Messrs. Cuyler, Culver, Wakeley, &c. The meeting was a grand success, and the cause of Prohibition is greatly strengthened.

And when my maiden kisses me,
I'll fancy I'm the Sultan be.
And when my cherry glass I sip,
I'll fancy I'm the Sultan be.

And so, the matrons should not discountage too much the indulgence of their sweethearts in the cherry glass, lest, becoming too cold blooded, they might grow careless about the kisses.

The meeting was called to order by the nomination of Mr. Joseph Simpson, as President.

The chairman said he was one of the Vice Presidents of the alliance, and in the absence of the President at Albany, it was his duty to take the chair; he, however, thanked the meeting for the unanimity with which it responded to his nomination.

They had met to congratulate each other on the triumph of temperance, and to glorify over a victory, the consequences of which would restore husbands to wives, and fathers to families, and would put the cause of Prohibition on a permanent basis.

Mr. Cuyler then addressed the meeting, and said that the cause of Prohibition was now on a permanent basis, and that the friends of the cause should be satisfied with the result.

Mr. Culver then addressed the meeting, and said that the cause of Prohibition was now on a permanent basis, and that the friends of the cause should be satisfied with the result.

Mr. Wakeley then addressed the meeting, and said that the cause of Prohibition was now on a permanent basis, and that the friends of the cause should be satisfied with the result.

Mr. Simpson then addressed the meeting, and said that the cause of Prohibition was now on a permanent basis, and that the friends of the cause should be satisfied with the result.

for the second, the offender must wait into the penitentiary for three months. (Laughter and applause.) Now, though our excellent friends of the A. S. and Irving might say that this is a very small penalty, yet when you may depend, before they will subject themselves to the deplorable penalty of spending their evenings in the penitentiary, they will be glad to see the law enforced.

One of the best of us, after all, the search and seizure clause. That we must look after. Every sheriff, deputy sheriff, and police officer, is bound to attend to the execution of this law, and to enforce a violation of it, you may just walk up to a saloon, and say: "There, now, do your duty." If they do not do their duty they will find that they will lose their places, and that consideration will have its effect.

I found this morning, (he said,) the New York Herald uttering some incoherent words about the loss of this law would make. It gives the statistics of the quantity of grain consumed by the distillers and brewers of the State, and the amount of this year of this year, that we shall not have these 9,000,000 gallons of whiskey manufactured, and that we shall have 90,000 less broken faces and heads. The speaker proceeded to read, and great laughter, the following paragraph from the editorial columns of the New York Herald:

This law, it is said, will be the making of glory. Those who, we believe, especially on Sunday, will repair to the saloons, will be glad to see the law enforced. The speaker then proceeded to read, and great laughter, the following paragraph from the editorial columns of the New York Herald:

Another "Three cheers for the New York Herald." The speaker then proceeded to read, and great laughter, the following paragraph from the editorial columns of the New York Herald:

The secretary then read the following resolutions:—Resolved, That we severally and jointly offer up our prayers for the passage of the law, and for the enforcement of the law, and for the restoration of the law to its former position.

THE LATE $3,000 ROBBERY IN DUANE STREET—ARREST OF TWO OF THE PARTIES ALLEGED TO BE IMPLICATED IN THE ROBBERY—THE PURSUIT AND CAPTURE.

On the 23d ult., published an account of a successful robbery perpetrated upon a German merchant, doing business in Duane street, by two parties, in a notorious case in Duane street, by which the unfortunate dupe lost the round sum of $3,000. Some days after the discovery of the robbery, two women, named Catherine Smith, alias "Little Blippers," and Moll Hodges, were arrested by Officer Webb, of the Lower Police Court, on charge of the robbery. They were taken before Justice O'Brien, and committed to prison. The stolen money was not recovered at the time, and very little trace of it could be obtained. It was thought by this office that Moll Hodges' lover had got the proceeds of the haul, and fled from the city with the same.

Some difficulty was encountered in getting reliable information to the extent, when a detective, named Smith, was sent to the city, and he was directed to find out the whereabouts of the stolen money. The Mayor's Office.

THE HARBOR PATRONS AGAIN AND THE COMMISSIONERS OF NAVIGATION.

It appears that a large number of the Harborside men arrived in this city by the Des Moines are in a state of destitution. The Commissioners of Navigation have been applied to by some of them, but they have absolutely refused to make any allowance, although they have received five thousand dollars from the Harborside men to be appropriated to the relief of such as may be in want. It will be remembered that they assured the Mayor, when these unfortunate men were admitted to land, that there were very few of them who were unable to provide for themselves, and gave their word that they would be able to do so.

It is, however, only in accordance with their conduct in similar cases before. We hope the Mayor will look into the matter, and have a thorough investigation of it. The Commissioners require another explanation, such as that they have already received at his hands the following letter speaks for itself:—

To His Honor, FERNANDO WOOD, Mayor of New York:—The undersigned, one of the Harborside men, has the honor to inform you that he and his fellow sufferers have been refused to pay by your board or afford any pecuniary aid for want of medical relief, and that they are in a state of destitution. They are in a state of destitution. They are in a state of destitution.
